

Eighth Mississippi State - UAB Conference on Differential Equations Computational Simulations, May 7–9, 2009, Department of Mathematics and Statistics, Mississippi State University, Mississippi State, MS, USA

NONLOCAL PROBLEMS FOR SECOND ORDER DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS

ABDELKADER BOUCHERIF

We study second order nonlinear ordinary differential equations with integral boundary conditions. We rely on the method of a priori bounds on solutions and fixed point theorems to prove existence of at least one solution.

KING FAHD UNIVERSITY OF PETROLEUM AND MINERALS
E-mail address: aboucher@kfupm.edu.sa