

The Spring Topology and Dynamics Conference 2009, March 7–9, 2009, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL, USA

NON-NORMALITY POINTS

LYNNE YENGULALP

A point x in a normal space Y is called a non-normality point of Y if $Y \setminus \{x\}$ is not normal. In this talk, I will discuss non-normality points of $\beta X \setminus X$ when X is a metric space.

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS
E-mail address: `spencel1@math.ku.edu`