

The Spring Topology and Dynamics Conference 2009, March 7–9, 2009, University of Florida, Gainesville, FL, USA

Coauthors: Moon Duchin and Kasra Rafi

COMPACTIFYING THE SPACE OF FLAT STRUCTURES.

CHRISTOPHER LEININGER

Using Bonahon’s space of geodesic currents, we describe a compactification of the space of flat structures on a closed surface. The points which are added have a geometric description as “mixed structures” on the surface. A mixed structure is a hybrid of a flat structure and a measured lamination.

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS AT URBANA–CHAMPAIGN
E-mail address: `clein@math.uiuc.edu`